

Indiana Leadership Association Summer Training

"You, Your Community & Leadership Learning Communities"

Tipton County Foundation Center

Thursday, June 14, 2007

9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

You are invited to experience "Leadership Learning Community (LLC)" during this day of well facilitated experiential learning. We will learn of LLC and its resources and experience the opportunities for connection. It will be a day of "Exploring the Collective Nature of Leadership." A day of learning and experience that will heighten our understanding of the core competencies of a leadership learning community. We will leave with tools to foster and support a Leadership Learning Community in the place we live.

Deborah Meehan:

Featured Speaker

Deborah Meehan is the founder and executive director of the Leadership Learning Community (LLC), which she says, "inspires me and affirms our vision that together we can transform individuals and society." The LLC, a community of more than 1,000, strengthens the practice of those committed to developing leadership that can address a range of significant social issues. In 1991, Deborah received a Kellogg National Leadership fellowship, and then served as a consultant for the Foundation to build an alumni association for the 700 leadership alumni of the Kellogg program. Deborah has also conducted leadership program evaluations and has produced leadership scans, literature reviews and made program recommendations on behalf of The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, The California Wellness Foundation, the Lucille and David Packard Foundation and the Hess Leadership Institute among many others.
